

Emergency Contacts/Numbers

	Family & Friends addresses and phone numbers		Doctors, Dentists and local hospitals/clinics Business and work numbers and contacts Local non-emergency numbers for police, fire,
	Phone Tree contacts	\Box
	Kids' schools and day care centers	Ц
	Important business associates		ambulance, city and utilities
Financial information
	Credit card numbers and phone numbers (plus		Investments/401K/safety deposit information websites and passwords)		Last two statements from all of your financial Insurance card numbers and phone numbers		accounts - checking, savings, 401K, investments Bank Cards, accounts and phone numbers (plus websites and passwords)
Copies of vital documents
	Driver's licenses or State Issued ID Cards		Military Records
	Social security cards		Adoption/foster records
	Credit cards (front and back)		Naturalization/Immigration documents
Medical Information
	Advanced Care Directives	П	Insurance information - copies of your cards (fron
	Immunization Records	_	and back)
	Medical history if you have serious		and bucky
_	illnesses/diseases
Legal Documents
	Power of Attorney for you	П	Death Certificates - it may be important to keep a
$\bar{\Box}$	Power of Attorney for otheres	_	death certificate from a recently deceased family
\bar{a}	Deed and titles to your home and/or cars		member - this is a judgment call for you.
ā	Birth certificates (you can order dupliate official		Passports documents from your state agencies		Car Titles
	Wedding licenses]	Lease information
	Wills - again, original documents are the only ones	_ that are legally binding.

Insurance

	Insurance Policy with local agent information		Home inventory – list and/or video
	Insurance cards if needed
	Other
	List of vital websites and passwords
$\bar{\Box}$	Your Emergency Plan
	Keys to your vehicles, house and storage spaces
	Emergency ID Cards
	Evacuation Checklist - your plan of attack for sudden evacuat	ions
	Photos – Scan onto thumb drive
	Cash
	Maps
	Pet information
\Box	List of local and regional hotels

Get more information at Mom with a PREP.com